

AN UNEXPECTED VISIT

1. OCCUPATION (PLURAL) _____
2. ACTIVITY (VERB) _____
3. VERB (PAST TENSE) _____
4. PLACE YOU SIT _____
5. VERB (PAST TENSE) _____
6. THING (PLURAL) _____
7. THING (PLURAL) _____
8. BODY PART _____
9. NAME OF RELATIVE _____
10. VERB (PAST TENSE) _____
11. LIQUID _____
12. NUMBER _____
13. ADVERB _____
14. ACTIVITY (ENDING IN "ING") _____

*Transfer your answers to the blanks on the story side.
Read your wacky version of events and share with others!*

*Then turn the page to find out what Marco pioneer
Saloma Olds actually wrote in her diary on February 22, 1913.*

AN UNEXPECTED VISIT

We tried having school this morning and again were interrupted. Mr. and Mrs. Gage came to call on us. They are _____ who are staying at the Marco Hotel. They Occupation-s
were here to _____ more than a month ago
Activity (Verb)
and we were beginning to think that they would not come at all to call. We _____ on our _____ and Verb (Past Tense) Place You Sit _____ with them for a while. We gave them some Verb (Past Tense)
_____ and _____. Mr. Gage is very fond of the Thing (Plural) Thing (Plural)
latter. This afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Eubank and Harvey came here. Harvey had something the matter with his
_____, which _____ had to attend to. I think Body Part Name of Relative
he wanted it _____. Mrs. Eubank said that there had Verb (Past Tense)
been quite a storm down by Pavilion Key. She said the _____ rose _____ feet in twenty minutes and the Liquid Number
wind blew _____. Guy Eubank, the eldest son,
Adverb
was there in it all, _____.
Activity (Ending in "ing")

three times.

We had lunch and then came home.

Florence, who plays very well on the piano, played some waltz dances and some of the young people danced to them.

We gave them some orange blossoms and water. Then off went the Bon Temps with its passengers.

After they went I practiced from four to five, my regular practice hour.

Marco, Feb. Sat. 22

We tried having school this morning, and again were interrupted. Mr. and Mrs. Gage came to call on us. They are tourists who are staying at the Marco hotel. They were here to Sunday dinner more than a month ago and we were beginning to think that they would not come at all to call. We sat on our screened porch and talked with them for a while. We gave them some bananas and candy. Mr. Gage is very fond of the latter.

This afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Eubank and Harvey came here. Harvey had something the matter with his teeth which Papa had to attend to, I think he wanted them pulled.

Mrs. Eubank said that there has been quite a storm down by Pavilion Key. She said the water rose six feet in twenty minutes and the wind blew furiously. Guy Eubank, the eldest son, was there in it all, coon hunting.

I set a hen with duck eggs yesterday.

Marco, Mon. Feb. 24

Sunday ^{morning}, we had our little Sunday school. Mamma read from the Word, Conjugal Love and some other things.

In the afternoon we all went to Marco to call on the Mr. and Mrs. Fielding, friends of the Dimocks. We knew the the Dimocks very well at one time but we have not seen them for many years. The Fieldings have a little girl two years old, I do not